DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 10 to 13, drawn to a semiconductor package, classified in class 257, subclass 678.
- II. Claims 1 to 9, drawn to an injection mold got encapsulating an integrated circuit chips as to form a semiconductor package, classified in class 438, subclass 15+.
3. Claims 14 to 17, drawn to an information processing system, classified in class 365, subclass 129+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, in stead of the second part with at least one movable demolding member opposite the insert and means got keeping the demolding member bearing on the package when the second part of the mold is separated from the first part of the mold during demolding it can be performed before the demolding..

Inventions I and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, instead of the semiconductor package can be used without the information processing system.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
